Rotary Botanical Gardens, Janesville, Wisconsin, a 20-acre non-profit botanic garden, is home to many dramatic themed gardens. Some have an international focus, such as the Japanese, Scottish, French, Italian and English gardens. Also included are less formally structured gardens including one of the very few Fern and Moss gardens recognized by the Hardy Fern Foundation in the United States, as well as Shade, Prairie and Woodland gardens. On-site are a visitor center, gift shop, and a beautiful facility that may be rented for wedding reception, reunions, meeting, etc.

An admission policy is in effect April-October. Group tours and buses are welcomed with advance notice.

Directions: from I-90, exit 175A onto East Racine Street. At the first stop-light turn left onto Palmer Drive. Continue on Palmer Drive through the golf course and past the Horticulture Center to the Parker Education Center. Parking is offered at no charge.
