

2021 Rotary Botanical Gardens – Creating Year-Round Beauty in the Garden

Gardens can provide us with year-round interest and pleasure. Having a garden that delights in winter requires a little thought and planning in the summer. Come together, virtually, for a conversation with Chanticleer Garden Assistant Horticulturist Chris Fehlhaber, about the planning and practices that will lead to a garden that enchants all year. Participants will learn which plants bring year-round interest, autumn practices and techniques, and tips for attracting birds and wildlife.
