

2024 Rotary Botanical Gardens- Hoo's Woods

During this 45-minute education program participants will meet several owl species including our Snowy Owl- the largest owl species in North America. Learn about their natural history, silent flight, adaptations to their habitat and behaviors. These birds are some of the most beautiful owl species in the world. Hoo's Woods program will leave you spellbound, anxious to learn more about these fascinating birds and others. Hoo's Woods is a non-profit organization established in 1998, dedicated to the rehabilitation and education of raptors.
