Other Story and Stroll procedures?

- The first 25 children and their caregivers will attend the first story time.
- The second 25 children and their caregivers will participate in activities first, and then attend story time.
- Children over and above 50 will be offered activities only. Fees still apply.
- Groups will need to wait to enter the program room until their entire party arrives. No late arrivals can be accommodated once the program has begun.
- Late arrivals can join the group who are taking part in activities. Meet outside the story room by 10:30 a.m. to enter the second Story Time session (pending space).
- More strolling? You are welcome to go out into the Gardens after the program ends. No additional admission fee applies.
- No snacks, bottles or sippy cups in the program room during story time! Wait until you are strolling outdoors – you are welcome to have snacks in the Gardens. (Feeding infants is an exception to this policy.)
- For maximum enjoyment of Story and Stroll, caregivers should:
 - Turn off or silence cell phones. No texting during the program.
 - Save personal conversations for outdoors or for after the program.
 - Park strollers in "Stroller Parking" outside the program room to ensure access to emergency exits.

Please be patient with our policies and procedures. They are designed to maximize safety and enjoyment for all. (If you have additional questions, comments or concerns, please contact our education coordinator at 608.314.8412.)
